I would like to thank the President of the Hellenic Chamber of Hotels, Mr. Alexandros Vassilikos, and its Board of Directors, for their trust and support through the continuous assignment of studies to us. And of course, vital role to these positive outcomes played the Board of Directors of RIT, the Director General Professor George Petrakos, our senior researcher Ms Sophia Panousi and the rest of RIT’s collaborators team, whom I thank for their efforts”.

And the President of RIT concludes:

- To make it renown by the research as well as the hotel community,
- To establish it as a reference point of the Tourism Authorities and

We continue and further accelerate the important work we are doing, with a series of surveys, concerning current issues, unexpected events, but also addressing the challenges of the future in the hospitality sector”.
